

1 DELEGATE FREEDLANDER: I second the motion,
2 Mr. President.

3 THE PRESIDENT: I think it is going to be 4 difficult for the Convention to act on the precise language
5 of the motion, and I would suggest that procedurally
6 we consider, if the Convention delegates feel that they 7 have the purport of the motion sufficiently in mind, 8 to act, if the motion is adopted, recommit the rule to 9 the committee to appraise it precisely. Would that be 10 satisfactory to you, Delegate White?

11 DELEGATE WHITE: Yes, Mr. President, except 12 that it may delay us, Mr. President. Of course, I could 13 offer, and possibly it would be necessary to offer two 14 amendments. I could address myself to one precise 15 amendment dealing with the manner of electing people to 16 fill vacancies, where you had more than one delegate
17 seeking an election. I would make that motion precisely.

18 THE PRESIDENT: I can have my secretary type
19 up immediately what you have said and bring it to you
20 while you are talking, if you would rather see it.

21 DELEGATE WHITE: Thank you.
